Preparation for Worship

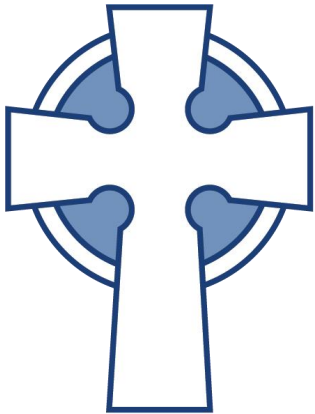

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised, And His greatness is unsearchable. Psalm 145:3

Key Points from the Passage

- The LORD is infinitely great: His greatness has no limits; His wisdom, power, holiness, and love are beyond our full comprehension
- God alone is worthy of our highest praise: Because of who He is, the LORD deserves our wholehearted worship and adoration
- Our worship is filled with wonder: We come before God, not because we have fully understood Him, but because we stand in awe of His unsearchable greatness

Suggestions for Prayer:

- Hearts of wonder: Pray the Lord would enlarge our view of His greatness, and fill us with awe as we come into His presence..
- Wholehearted praise: Ask the Holy Spirit to remove every distraction and unite our hearts to give to God the worship that His glorious name deserves..
- Humble faith: Pray that we would trust and adore His name, even where His greatness exceeds our understanding, rejoicing that His ways are perfect and His mercy is sure.
